

14th Annual Kastner Cup press release 9/24/15

For Immediate Release 9/24/2015

The 14th Annual Kastner Cup will be hosted by Classic Sports Racing Group (CSRG) as a part of the David Love Memorial Races April 1-3, 2016 at Sonoma Raceway. All TRIUMPH-POWERED race cars with a current racing log book are eligible.

The Kastner Cup race honors the legendary, R.W. "Kas" Kastner, a championship winning driver and team manager who led the U.S. Triumph racing program to countless victories through the 60's and 70's. Kas himself will present the cup to the racer he selects to receive this coveted award.

Sonoma wine country is filled with activities, great food, and unrivaled natural beauty. If you are a Triumph owner or British car fanatic, don't miss this event!

The CSRG David Love Memorial Races is a very popular and well attended event. Typically more than 175 race cars participate, divided into eight run groups ranging from production sports cars to Can-Am racers. A Friday test day is available for testing and practice.
